Glynnis Anderson is an associate of Beus Gilbert McGroder PLLC, a premier boutique law firm concentrating on High Stakes Litigation, Real Estate and Zoning Law, and Plaintiffs Catastrophic Injury & Wrongful Death. Ms. Anderson is a member of the firm's Plaintiffs Commercial Litigation Practice and Plaintiffs Catastrophic Injury & Wrongful Death Practice.

While pursuing her law degree, Ms. Anderson worked for the University of Arizona Innocence Project where she helped investigate and litigate wrongful convictions and claims of actual innocence on behalf of inmates throughout the State of Arizona. Ms. Anderson also competed in the 2020-2021 ABA National Appellate Advocacy Competition during her time as a law student.

In April 2020, after presenting a brief and an oral argument before judges of the United States District Court of Arizona and the Arizona Court of Appeals, and Justices of the Arizona Supreme Court, Ms. Anderson placed first in the Samuel M. Fegtly Moot Court Competition, earning the Suzanne Rabe Award for Best Written Appellate Brief, and the F. Britton Burns Award for Best Oral Argument.
